The Benedictine Abbey of Melk agrees that all created photos and all created filmmaterial may be used for the project mentioned above, with limitations on time and location.

Any use beyond the stated purpose requires prior written approval from the Benedictine Abbey of Melk (foto@stiftmelk.at).

The recordings may not be passed on to third parties or distributed via agencies. Other uses or commercial purposes are not permitted.

Use for purposes that degrade or defame the Benedictine Abbey of Melk is strictly prohibited.

For any potential damages, the contractual partner is liable within the framework of the legal provisions. The contractual partner undertakes to maintain valid liability insurance that covers personal injury, property damage, and custodial damage.

The photographer is permitted to perform retouching on the photos during development or on the digital image files using appropriate image editing software. However, the image material must not be used for photomontages.

The images may be edited as long as the original meaning is not distorted.

When publishing the photos or other image material, the location - Abbey of Melk - must be mentioned either directly next to the photo or in the credits for photos, and in the credits or text for film productions.

The following fee for the planned film and/or photo recordings will be charged:

€: 0.00 Plus 20% VAT
